Editor Harry Sommers says that this is not the time to inject the statewide prohibition issue into politics; that it should not be brought into a governor's race and imperil the democratic ticket. Well, let's see about it, old friend. A legislature will have to submit the question to a vote of the people and legislative candidates are being elected this fall at the same time as a governor. A governor in sympathy with this great reform can do a great work with a legislature. The argument that the governor has nothing to do with the question is bosh. Look what Woodrow Wilson did with the legislature of New Jersey while he was governor in the way of forcing through reform measures. Kentucky must have a governor and a General Assembly who both stand for submitting this momentous question to a vote of the people, and now is as good a time as any for threshing the matter out.

Since Jan. 1st over fifty murders have been committed in New York City. The highest record was made Saturday when five lives were snuffed out. The police have made arrests in twenty-six cases. These cases are pending while in four other cases the prisoners were discharged. In four cases the murderers killed themselves, and in one case a burglar was shot by a policeman. The officer was exonerated. Life is distressingly cheap in the metropolis and seems to be growing cheaper day by day; to the discredit of the greatest city in the world, it is said.

Dr. Ben L. Bruner tells the newspapers that he will attempt to find days for the republicans "to hold a dry platform." He says that the great bulk of the republicans are drys, and that he will do his best to get the party to do the same. He says that he has no information beyond doubt that the party will do this. We do not know what the exact date and dry law, but from indications we would conclude that at least the aforesaid ninety per cent, is for Eli Morrow, of Somerset, who by the way is in Stanford just now engaged in the Hudson murder case.

Remarkable how influential and powerful (in the eyes of the political paragraphists) of the Louisville press certain state editors and politicians have been since they have accepted his views in advocacy of a platform convention before a primary. Some, like ourselves, have been blacklisted from his notice or mention for years because we will not follow his dictation in affairs political. But the minute they fall into line, how "influential" and "important leaders" they become. Excuse us, please.

The Richmond Register, Editor Pickle's paper, has been enlarged to an eight column quarto and otherwise improved, thus proving that business is good and that the newspaper game is lively in the city in which it is published. For years the Register was a nine-column folio and the reduction in the size of its pages is a reminder that the blank sheet is well-nigh obsolete in modern journalism. More and smaller pages is the aim and desire of the newspaper boys now.

Anton Lang, who gained world fame by playing the role of Christ in the last two performances of the Passion Play in Bavaria, has hurried away to the front to kill and maim His Son in the name of we. It is a pity that the one who appeared so creditably in the role of the Divine should change his calling to that of taking human life, and in so doing proves a versatility remarkable if not admirable.

The "Old Time Democrat" writing from Richmond on the "State-wide" question makes one almost conclude that Marse Henri has taken up his abode in that delightful little city. Or perhaps the writer is an understudy of the greatest editorial writer in the South. Some expressions and quotations in the article make us imagine we see the grand old man penning the contribution.

Billy Sunday got after Unitarians in Patterson, N. J., and gave them such a raking over that they have secured a hall in which to answer his attacks. That won't cut any ice. Billy's magnetism will soon have that denomination going his way and dropping ducats into his already well-filled contribution basket.

French Remedy for Stomach Troubles

The leading doctors of France have for years used a prescription of vegetable oils for chronic stomach trouble and constipation that acts like a charm. One dose will convince. Severe cases of years' standing are often greatly benefited within 24 hours. So many people are getting surprising results that we feel all persons suffering from constipation, lower bowel, liver and stomach troubles should try May's Wonderful Remedy. It is sold by leading druggists everywhere with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question if ONE bottle fails to give you satisfaction.

Liquor licenses are being refused the dance halls in London by the magistrates in charge of this excise. Formerly they were awarded without question, even to halls in which dances were held only occasionally. "The present is not time for dancing, anyway," explained a magistrate in refusing an application for license "and if they dance at all they will have to be in the sum of a cup of coffee rather than to booze," said he. Gradually the whisky zone is growing smaller and smaller and the time seems to be coming when the whole kingdom will be dry.

Notwithstanding the saloons of Winchester pay into the city treasury $15,000 yearly, the town is heels over head in debt, and provision is being made for making the merchants of other towns pay their share. Must be had management there. Stanford gets no saloon money, its business men pay no license, yet his debts are all paid and she had nearly $7,000 in bank to start the new year with. But then, there are not many places in the country managed as well as the "best town on the map."

J. R. Cook, the well-known Somerset attorney, has been elected by the stockholders of the Somerset Herald as its editor. An excellent selection. Mr. Cook is a splendid Christian gentleman, a man of affairs and a good citizen. His only drawback is his politics—he's a republican.

COOPER TO HAVE

BIG BREAD LINE

Proceeds From Sale of Celebrated Tanlac To Feed Poor

Louisville, April 7.—L. T. Cooper, the noted "Tanlac Man," will establish and maintain, at his own personal expense, a "bread line" in Louisville this winter. Mr. Cooper conceived and began executing this idea as quickly as he performed his remarkable relief work among the Dayton flood sufferers in 1913.

Louisville, therefore, be unique in its relation with the rest of the country, because this city will have the only "bread line" outside of New York and maybe a few other larger cities of the world, where the plan has been established and is now maintained by the charitable organizations.

Mr. Cooper spent the afternoon looking over several available locations for the "bread line" and he will probably be prepared to state definitely by today just where the work will be carried on. He has also been in communication with local bakeries, and an agreement with reference to the bread and coffee supply has been practically reached.

Mr. Cooper, who is one of the most magnanimous of men has always been in sympathy with the poor and unfortunate. The "bread line" will therefore be only another exemplification of his nature. A large percentage of the profits from the sale of his celebrated preparation, Tanlac, the medicine that is accomplishing such remarkable results in cases of catarrh, stomach, liver and kidney troubles, will be devoted to charity and her children in this city.

Mr. Cooper is upon this great undertaking with a clear conscience.

Since a mere boy, I have always been inclined to help those who were less fortunate than myself, and in each city I visit I have invariably shown my sympathy for the poor by performing some service at my own personal expense that would bring a bit of genuine charity directly to them. I can, therefore, imagine nothing, among the several charitable plans I now have in mind, that will prove of as much benefit as "bread line." The necessary details connected with the plan will be perfected by me this week."

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine now being introduced by Mr. Cooper, can be bought in Stanford at Penny's drug store.

Who Can Doubt Sworn Testimony of Honest Citizens?

Some time ago I began the use of your Swamp-Root with the most remarkable results. For years I was almost a wreck and was a great sufferer. I was so bad at times I would faint away and had sinking spells. Finally a new doctor was called in and he said that I had kidney trouble and gave me medicine, of which I took several bottles. I obtained some relief from this but I was getting weaker all the time; I could not sleep and suffered so much pain that my husband and children had to lift me in and out of bed. After this time two friends sent me word to try Swamp-Root, which did and I am glad to state that the first dose gave me great relief. After taking the third dose I was helped into bed and slept half of the night.

I took several bottles of Swamp-Root and I feel that I owe my life to this wonderful remedy. The two family doctors said that I could not live three months. I would not be helped in and out of the bed ten to twenty times every night. After taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root for two days I was entirely free from getting up and could sleep soundly.

BRING YOUR JOB PRINTING TO THE I. J.

A Pounding But No Bones Broken.

A great pounding at the Methodist parsonage, but no one hurt—April 1st—all fools day happened to be a day of rejoicing at the Methodist parsonage at Moreland. We had announced that the Woman's Misionary Society would meet at our home, Thursday, April 1st at 2:30 P. M. There were about 25 of our good women of the Methodist church and Christian church and some that belonged to no church, remembered the parson and family with a visitation, which was greatly appreciated. They brought ham, shoulder, potatoes, flour, groceries of all kinds and loaded the table until we were afraid of it falling down beneath the burden. It was a day not to be forgotten. As it was all fool's day some of them wanted to have some fun and brought the parson a pair of shoes.

May the good Lord bless the donors and as they administer to our temporal needs, may He help me to administer to their spiritual needs. We shall never forget them and their kindness shown us on this the first day of April 1915.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. B. D. Proprietary, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and there are many calls for Eczema remedies sold by ourselves and hesitatingly recommend D. B. D. Proprietary.

Leave your orders with W. H. Higgins for Disc Harrows, Corn Planters and Cultivators.

W. B. Burton, of Lancaster, will have his great stallion, Bleucher, 46158, here at the horse show Monday. Read his advertisement in this issue and look him up. He's worth seeing.

Yowell & Eads, of Hustonville, sold to O. P. Huff, a local butcher, three cows at from $5.50 to $5.75. They ran in weight from 750 to 1,075 pounds. To Greeley Lutes of Turnersville, the same firm sold an 850-pound cow at five and a half cents a pound and $1: and a heifer and bull for $55.

R. C. Arnold, local stock dealer, recently bought the following: 13 head of 140-pound hogs of Owlsley Dunn at six and a half cents a pound; cow weighing 800 pounds of Will Long at four cents a pound; a cow of Will Hester, weighing 800 pounds at two and a half cents a pound and two calves of P. Nunnelley at six cents a pound.

Carpenter of Hustonville, sold to a Mercer county syndicate four thoroughbred yearling bulls at $100. He sold to another party a few weeks ago two of the same for $225.

R. C. Carpenter, of Hustonville, has disposed of three race mares in the past few weeks for the sum of $4,000. He sold two for $2,000 and one for $1,000. The last sale was made only a few days ago.

Forestus Reid, of Danville, delivered to Monte Fox, of Danville, 46 head of heavy steers which he has been feeding on his farm on the Hustonville pike, three miles west of Hustonville. The heifers were in prime condition, weighing an average of 1,275 pounds. Mr. Fox paid $7.15 a hundred pounds for them. He put them on the cars at Rowland for shipment east. Dr. H. L. Case, assistant state veterinarian came over with Mr. Fox, made an examination of the herd, and certified that they are entirely free from any symptoms of the foot and mouth disease.

J. A. and R. K. Young, of Adair county, were here Thursday returning home after having sold 100 head of steers and heifers to a man in this section. The heifers they disposed of ran in weight from 400 to 900 pounds and they got for them all the way from $20 to $52.50 a head. Among the sales they made were the following: To S. H. Baughman, near Shelby City 29 steers; to Mrs. Jas. Robinson, near Hubble 10 steers; to J. D. Whitehouse, near Danville, five steers to McDowell and Fox, of Danville, 15 steers; to John Goggin, near Hubble, four steers; to C. R. Martin, of Danville, a couple of steers.

Will stand at $15 to insure a living colt. It would be judicious to take advantage of this low price, for the chances are that his fee will be higher next season.

Be sure and take a look at him next Monday, horse show and court day.

Will make the season to a limited number of approved mares at Nuttall's stock yards, Stanford.

is a handsome chestnut with beautiful mane and tail; is 15.3 hands and will weigh about 1,150 pounds; has the very best of feet and legs; good flat bone, broad sloping shoulders; short, stout back and hindquarters; tail is straight and is more so in motion; sets himself just right; never touches himself any where; and has exceptional speed at the rack and trot. He was one of the most successful horses shown last year. He was shown at three fairs and won the combined stallion class at each place.

Kentucky Gentleman has the qualities that are necessary to the production of a perfect horse—color, size, style, speed, action, and endurance, and ideal breeding. He is sired by Chester Peavine 3184, by Rex Peavine 1796, by Rex McDonald 833. Dam, Flora Carter 8419, by Red Squirrel 53, by Black Squirrel 58, by Black Eagle 74, by King William 67.

In offering the services of this grand young horse to the public, I feel that I am giving them their money's worth. Give him the same class of mares and I do not believe there is a horse in the State that will beat him producing high class colts, (no matter how high the service fee.) Breeding to Kentucky Gentleman is no longer an experiment. Bring him a good mare and I will get you an extra good colt. Do not take your mares thirty or forty miles to breed them; you have just as good a horse right at home and for less than half the money.

Kentucky Gentleman will make the season at my home, one mile from Stanford, on the Danville pike at $20.00 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled. Care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.
